Project Deadline Rules for Employees

1. Clear Deadlines

1. Every task or project will have a specific deadline assigned by the manager or team lead.
2. Deadlines will be communicated in writing (e.g., email, project management tool) to avoid confusion.

2. Prioritization

1. Employees must prioritize tasks based on urgency and importance.
2. High-priority tasks with closer deadlines should be completed first.

3. No Missed Deadlines Without Notice

1. If an employee anticipates missing a deadline, they must inform their manager at least 24 hours in advance.
2. Provide a valid reason and propose a new realistic deadline for approval.

4. Break Down Large Tasks

1. For complex projects, employees should break tasks into smaller milestones with intermediate deadlines.
2. Managers will review progress at each milestone.

6. Consequences for Missed Deadlines

1. First offense: Verbal warning and a discussion to identify the issue.
2. Repeated offenses: Written warning and a performance improvement plan.
3. Chronic missed deadlines may result in further disciplinary action.

7. Rewards for Consistency

1. Employees who consistently meet or exceed deadlines will be recognized during team meetings or performance reviews.
2. Incentives such as bonuses, gift cards, or extra time off may be awarded.

8. Flexibility for Valid Reasons

1. Employees may request deadline extensions for valid reasons (e.g., illness, unexpected workload, technical issues).
2. Extensions must be approved by the manager.

9. Regular Check-Ins

1. Managers will schedule weekly or bi-weekly check-ins to monitor progress and address any challenges.
2. Employees should come prepared to discuss their progress and any roadblocks.

10. Time Management Training

1. Employees struggling with deadlines may be required to attend time management or productivity training.
2. The company will provide resources to help employees improve their skills.

11. No Last-Minute Rush

1. Employees are expected to plan their work to avoid last-minute rushes.
2. Submitting incomplete or low-quality work to meet a deadline is not acceptable.

12. Team Collaboration

1. If a task involves multiple team members, everyone is responsible for meeting their part of the deadline.
2. Communicate openly with teammates to ensure alignment and avoid delays.

13. Review and Adjust Deadlines

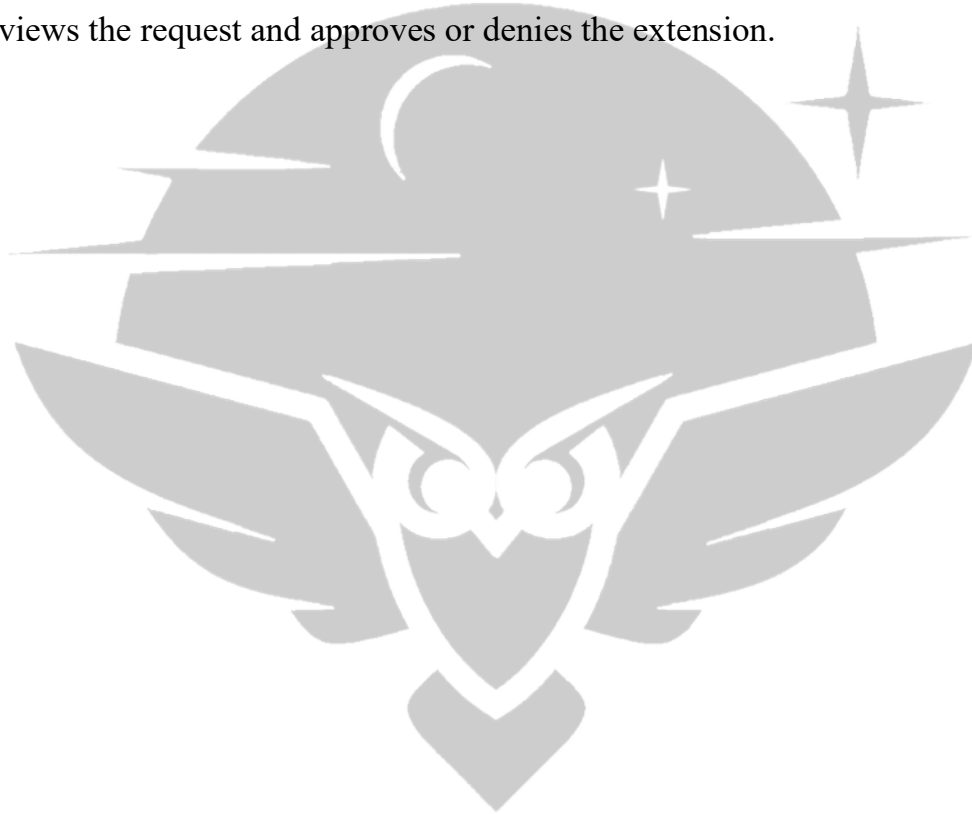

1. If external factors (e.g., client changes, resource shortages) impact the timeline, employees must notify their manager immediately.
2. Deadlines may be adjusted with manager approval.

14. Documentation

1. All deadlines, extensions, and communications related to deadlines must be documented in the company's system.
2. This ensures transparency and accountability.

Example Scenario

- Task: Complete a client report.
 - Deadline: February 10, 2025.
 - Rule Application
 - Employee updates the task status to the manager.
 - If the employee cannot meet the deadline, they notify their manager by February 9 with a valid reason and propose a new deadline (e.g., February
- Manager reviews the request and approves or denies the extension.

Warnings and Termination Policy

Warning Letters:

- Employees may receive a warning letter for the following infractions:
- Misbehavior: Any form of inappropriate conduct towards colleagues or clients.
- Property Damage: Major damage to company property, whether intentional or accidental.
- Employee Liability for Property Damage:
"If an employee causes damage to company property due to negligence, misuse, or intentional misconduct, they will be held financially responsible for the repair or replacement costs. The company reserves the right to deduct the amount from the employee's salary or seek reimbursement through other legal means. Each case will be reviewed individually to determine the appropriate course of action."
- Disobedience: Failure to comply with established company rules and policies.
- Office Politics: Engaging in office politics or misleading team members.

Consequences of Warnings:

- Upon receiving three warning letters, the employee will enter a 1-month notice period during which their behavior will be closely monitored.
- During this period, the company may decide to either: Extend employment based on improved behavior, or proceed with direct termination.

Immediate Termination:

- The following actions will result in immediate termination without a notice period:
- Breach of Confidentiality: Unauthorized disclosure of company or client information. If anyone found guilty legal actions will be taken against him/her with a penalty.
- Misbehaviour Towards Directors: Any form of disrespect or misconduct directed at company directors.

Compliance:

All employees are expected to adhere to these policies to maintain a respectful and productive work environment. Violations will be taken seriously and addressed promptly.

Increments and Promotions Policy

At Dream Byte Solutions, we believe in recognizing and rewarding our employees for their hard work, dedication, and contributions to the company. This policy outlines the criteria and processes for increments and promotions to ensure fairness, transparency, and alignment with our organizational goals.

1. Performance Evaluation

- Employees will be evaluated based on their performance during regular performance reviews. The following criteria will be considered:
- Consistent Achievement: Employees should consistently meet or exceed the performance goals established during evaluations.
- Quality of Work: The quality and impact of an employee's contributions to projects and team objectives will be assessed.
- Initiative and Responsibility: Employees who take on additional responsibilities or demonstrate leadership potential will be recognized.

2. Attendance Record

- Attendance plays a crucial role in determining eligibility for increments and promotions: Regular Attendance: Employees with a strong attendance record will be favoured in promotion considerations.
- Punctuality: Consistent punctuality reflects commitment and professionalism and will be taken into account.

3. Behaviour and Conduct

- An employee's behaviour in the workplace is vital for promotion consideration:
- Team Collaboration: Employees who work well with others, mentor colleagues, and contribute positively to team dynamics will be recognized.
- Adherence to Company Values: Employees who exemplify Dream Byte Solutions' core values in their daily work will be prioritized for promotions.

4. Skill Development

- Continuous learning is encouraged at Dream Byte Solutions:
- Skill Acquisition: Employees who pursue relevant training or certifications will be recognized for their commitment to professional growth.

- Adaptability: The ability to adapt to new roles or responsibilities is an important factor in promotion readiness.

5. Tenure and Experience

- Experience within the company is an important consideration:
- Length of Service: A minimum tenure may be required before an employee is eligible for promotion, ensuring they have sufficient experience in their current role.
- Job Experience: Relevant experience, both within the company and externally, will also be considered.

6. Promotion Process

- To ensure transparency in promotions:
- Transparent Criteria: Criteria for promotions will be clearly communicated to all employees.
- Regular Reviews: Performance reviews will be conducted at regular intervals (e.g., annually or bi-annually) to assess eligibility for promotion.
- Feedback Mechanism: Constructive feedback will be provided during reviews to help employees understand areas for improvement.

7. Anti-Discrimination Policy

Dream Byte Solutions is committed to ensuring that all promotion decisions are made based on merit alone. We strictly prohibit discrimination based on gender, race, or personal relationships.

8. Appeals Process

Employees who believe that a promotion decision was made unfairly have the right to appeal. A clear process will be established for addressing concerns transparently. This content can be included in the employee rulebook as a formal policy section, ensuring that all employees understand the criteria for increments and promotions at Dream Byte Solutions

Employee Resignation Process:

At Dream Byte Solutions, we recognize that employees may choose to resign for various reasons. To facilitate a smooth transition, the following steps outline the resignation process:

1. Preparation Before Resigning

Confirm New Employment: Ensure that you have finalized all terms of your new job, including the start date and offer letter, before submitting your resignation.

2. Inform Your Manager

- Schedule a Meeting: Arrange a private meeting with your immediate supervisor to discuss your intention to resign. This direct communication is a professional courtesy.
- Communicate Clearly: During the meeting, clearly express your decision to resign and maintain a respectful tone. If comfortable, you may provide a brief reason for your departure.

3. Submit a Formal Resignation Letter

- Draft Your Resignation Letter: Prepare a formal resignation letter that includes:
Your name and position

4. The effective date of your resignation

- A brief expression of gratitude for the opportunities provided by the company
- Deliver the Letter: Submit the resignation letter to both your manager and the HR department.
- Mail: You can either mail your resignation letter

5. Adhere to Notice Period

- Review Company Policy: Check your employment contract or company policy to determine the required notice period, typically two weeks. Serving this notice period is essential for a professional transition.
- Assist in Transition: Collaborate with your manager to create a transition plan for handing over responsibilities and knowledge to colleagues.

6. Complete Pending Tasks

- Finish Outstanding Work: Aim to complete any ongoing projects or tasks during your notice period.
- Knowledge Transfer: Assist in training colleagues or preparing documentation to ensure a smooth handover of your duties.

7. Return Company Property

- Return All Assets: Ensure that all company-owned items, such as laptops, access cards, and any other assets, are returned before your last working day.

8. Maintain Professionalism

- Positive Attitude: Keep a professional demeanour throughout your notice period. Avoid negative comments about the company or colleagues.
- Participate in Exit Interview: Be prepared for an exit interview where you may share feedback about your experience at Dream Byte Solutions.

9. Final Steps

- Confirm Last Day of Employment: Ensure that both you and HR have agreed on your last working day.
- Consult HR on Benefits: Speak with HR regarding final pay checks, benefits, and any other outstanding matters related to your employment
